

Eesti Välispoliitika Instituut
Estonian Foreign Policy Institute

and the

BULGARIAN EUROPEAN COMMUNITY STUDIES
ASSOCIATION

are organizing a discussion

“Bulgaria as a EU foreign policy player:
Role in the Western Balkans
and the Eastern Neighbourhood”

1st October 2007, 15:00 – 17:00 h.
Ministry of Foreign Affairs – Tallinn

* * * * *

The event is organized within the project

Networking for Citizens and Neighbours: Networking for Europe

under the Bulgarian “PHARE 2004 CIVIL SOCIETY” Programme.

PROGRAMME

Introduction

Prof. Dr. ANDRES KASEKAMP

Director of the Estonian Foreign Policy Institute – Tallinn

(member institute of the Trans-European Policy Studies Association / TEPSA)

Speakers' Interventions

Prof. Dr. DINKO DINKOV

BECSA President, Head of the International Relations Department and Jean Monnet lecturer at the University of National and World Economy – Sofia

BULGARIA AS A EU FOREIGN POLICY PLAYER: ROLE IN THE WESTERN BALKANS

Discussion

Prof. Dr. KRASSIMIR NIKOLOV

BECSA Secretary General, Jean Monnet chair holder at the Varna Free University “Chernorizets Hrabar”

BULGARIA AS A EU FOREIGN POLICY PLAYER:
ROLE IN THE EASTERN EU NEIGHBOURHOOD

Discussion

Summary

Prof. Dr. ANDRES KASEKAMP

Director of the Estonian Foreign Policy Institute – Tallinn

(member institute of the Trans-European Policy Studies Association / TEPSA)

Coffee